

concerts & events
music production
artists
tv production
studios

Biography

Thilo Wolf EN

The pianist, drummer, composer, arranger and band leader Thilo Wolf founded the Thilo Wolf Big Band at the age of 24. The Band is still one of the leading big bands in Germany, have made guest appearances at numerous festivals in Europe and in 2007 they entered the "Big Band Hall Of Fame" (USA). Wolf's jazz show "SWING IT!" (BR television 1992 - 2010) was voted "Best Jazz Show of the Year" in 2002.

Thilo Wolf and his orchestra have already worked with numerous international artists, including the big band heroes Max Greger, Paul Kuhn and Ray Anthony as well as numerous Grammy Award winners such as Paul Anka, Diane Schuur or New York Voices up to the current German-speaking top acts such as Till Brönner or Max Mutzke.

The Thilo Wolf Big Band is not only represented as a television orchestra in various broadcasters, but is still involved in various cross-border projects to this day. Over 30 studio albums have also been created. As a composer, Thilo Wolf has written four musicals so far and is also regularly involved in the development of numerous musical theater productions and music programs as musical director, producer and conductor. With his company Wavehouse-Entertainment, he has been producing concert events and jazz programs for BR television, ARD-Alpha, 3SAT and ARTE since 2012.